BUYS NICE TEAM.

Mr. J. A. Beasley has recently purchased of Mr. Marion Johnson a handsome team of bay horses that are said to be as good as were ever in the county. The price was about $500.00 and knowing ones say they are richly worth the money. They will make an ideal hearsa team and will be used as such.

SIGN OF THE PURITAN.

"The Puritan" has started a great white way in Lancaster by having the first large white globe in town. It stands out beckoning many to a delightful lunch and refreshing drink.

The beauty of this attractive shop was further enhanced Wednesday evening by being decorated with Dorothy Perkins roses and June lilies.

W. C. T. U. SPEAKING.

Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp spoke at the Christian church Saturday afternoon and night. Mrs. Beauchamp, who is President of the State W. C. T. U. is engaged in a speaking campaign in the eighth Congressional district this week advocating the nomination and election of temperance candidates. From here she went to Stanford, thence into Southeastern Kentucky for a series of speeches in Bell and adjacent counties.

TAKES IN PARTNER.

Mr and Mrs W. A. Farnau and young son, Kennedy Farnau, of Omaha, Neb., have moved to Lancaster and will make this their future home. They have gone to housekeeping to the home of Dr. B. F. Walter, on Hill court. Mr Farnau recently purchased an interest in the firm of Hudson & Hughes, our local grain and seed dealers, and assumed his duties last Monday.

PLEASING COMPLIMENT.

Editor R. L. Elkin, of the Lancaster Record, was in town yesterday. President Stears made a wise choice in placing Mr. Elkin on the executive committee of the State Press association, as he is very enthusiastic and useful member of the organization.—Danville Messenger.

Mr. Stears is a wise man and if he made any mistakes this might be one, but we are pleased that Bangs thinks it alright.

WILKINSON-CASEY.

After love at first sight and a short courtship, Miss Billie Wilkinson and Dr. John M. Casey surprised their friends by driving over to Danville and getting married Thursday evening at 10 o'clock.

They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Joseph, and Elder Garrison performed the ceremony, at the Christian church, that made them man and wife. Miss Billie has always been a favorite in Lancaster and is bright and possesses a lovely disposition and while the groom has only lived with us a few weeks he has proven well worthy of the prize he has won.

The Record joins their friends in wishing them "bon voyage".

STANLEY VINDICATED.

The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday declared that the Webb-Kenyon law which was designed to prohibit the interstate shipments of liquor, was not applicable to such shipments when the said liquor is for personal use. It will be remembered that Congressman A. O. Stanley, when this bill was up in Congress, declared that it was a "fake" and refused to vote for it. The Louisville Post and other papers criticized Mr. Stanley very bitterly. The Supreme Court of the United States completely vindicates Mr. Stanley and shows to the world that he is true to his trust and a man of splendid legal knowledge.—Danville Advocate.

STANDS FOR HIGH IDEALISM

The Lyceum and Chautauqua has its excuse for existence in that it stands for high idealism. There was never a time when it was so much a necessity. People have never had a greater hunger or a greater need for entertainment; but it must be entertainment very much worth while. A great religious wave is sweeping the country. Only the desperate and depraved are spending precious money for cheap shows. The theater is turning towards the serious drama. The popular magazines have paused to think. Even the moving picture films are more instructive and sincere. Any entertainment that laughs at purpose and sneers at idealism will need to wait until the colossal world struggle is finished.

SEINERS CAUGHT

And Held Over To Grand Jury.

Game Warden J. M. Bailey, of Boyle succeeded in landing four seiners before the court of that county for seining in Hanging Fork one day last week. He caught them with the goods and there was no way out for them, so Judge Coulter held them over to the September grand jury, in the sum of $100 each. A fine of ten dollars was drawn by one of the party and one other held under fifty dollar bond to await action of next grand jury. Keep up the good work Bro. Bailey and you may be rewarded by finding some Garrard county offenders.

ROMAN'S OPERA

HOUSE LEASED.

Roman's Opera House has been leased to the managers of a Lexington Theater and Mr. Ramsey and Mr. Dudley, of Lexington will, at once, take charge of it, putting on only first-class pictures and shows. Mr. Romans who has always been conscientious and painstaking in all his dealings with the public and while the "movie goes" will regret to give him up as manager it is a pleasure to know his successors are men of experience in this line and will try in every way to please the public.

JUNE TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT BEGINS NEXT MONDAY.

Will Probably Adjourn Until Later Date.

There is an unusual large docket for June Term of the Garrard Circuit Court, being thirty-five appearances, equity and common law cases, the old docket, however, is well cleaned up. The Court has never been held since the date was changed from August to June at the regular time in June on account of jurors and litigants being so busily engaged in harvesting the crops. The jurors are already telephoning the Judge their corn and tobacco are in weeds and meadows need cutting and asking to be excused to cultivate his crop, and save the hay and to harvest the wheat. It is almost impossible to get a jury to serve at this time. In carrying out the custom heretofore adopted the Judge will likely adjourn Court until the latter part of August or the first of September.

STATE AID CONTRACT GIVEN HUGHES BROTHERS FROM

City Limits To Fork Church.

At a recent meeting of the Fiscal court, with Judge C. A. Arnold presiding and the entire court present it was unanimously decided to award to Hughes Brothers of the city, the contract to build under the state aid law, the Lexington pike, beginning at the city limits and extending as far as the Fork church. This contract was let by competitive bids and the one offered by Hughes Brothers being the lowest was awarded at the price of $1.50 per cubic yard. The rock to be furnished for this road will be supplied from the quarry of Mr. A. B. Brown.

The lowest bid for the reconstruction of the Stanford pike, was $2.25 per cubic yard and was turned down by the court and the county will construct this road with its own machinery and the work on same will begin at once.

SPEAKERS CAMPAIGN

AGAINST ILLITERACY

The Kentucky Illiteracy commission announces the speakers campaign against illiteracy as covering the months of July, August and September. One hundred and twenty of Kentucky's greatest orators, led by the governor of Kentucky, will invade every county to spur up the forces to the fight to wipe out illiteracy. Each county will have a campaign of its local speakers in each district, preliminary to the final rally. During the three months each and every school district in Kentucky will be campaigned. This is the first campaign, educational or otherwise, to be extended to each district in the state.

EVERY DAY A RED

LETTER DAY.

This year's Redpath Chautauqua program we believe to be the best five-day Chautauqua program ever offered. Every day is a red letter day which you cannot afford to miss. These red letter events include: "Band Day," with its crowds and enthusiasm Grand Opera night, when one of the best known Chautauqua musical companies will present in special costumes selections from a well known grand opera; "Children's Night," with its rollicking fun, magic, and mystery, and "Bede Day," when ex-Congressman J. Adam Bede will lecture on "Our Nation—Its Problems and Progress." And these are but a few of the many good things in store for those holding Chautauqua season tickets. Why not make Chautauqua week an old home coming? Invite your friends from a distance to enjoy it with you. They will greatly appreciate your thoughtfulness in their behalf.

CONFUSION CONTROLS

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The republican county convention called by the chairman to meet at the court house last Saturday to elect delegates to the State platform convention, had not the smooth sailing that was hoped for by the old line republicans, for the Bull Moose's were there in force and created some confusion among the ranks, that looked for a time would make the breach even wider than it was three years ago. The trouble started when a resolution was offered by one of the Moose's that the old committee resign and a new organization be effected at once. This was bitterly opposed by the old liner's, they taking the stand that the time for re-organization should be, as it always has been, in March of each year. The vote was taken and the chairman decided that the resolution was lost. While this convention failed to endorse any candidate for Governor, the sentiment among the delegates selected, were unanimously in favor of Edwin P. Morrow, of Somerset and without going on record were opposed to State-wide Prohibition. The following delegates were named, among them being many prominent Progressives.

MEETING OF KENTUCKY

PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The members of Kentucky Press Association have all returned from their summer outing at beautiful Olimpia Springs, and settled down to work once more. Olimpia is one of the prettiest spots in the world. The scenery is equal to any and unsurpassed by few places, but personally we never did care for scenery on an empty stomach. The press people belong to the world of good fellows. They are at home in every condition of life, they appreciate the good things of life but realize perfectly well that too much of a good thing is no good at all, therefore scenery with nothing on the side was no good at all. We advise the executive committee to try out several places before next years meeting, it is too hard on innocent women and children. We have always advised our friends when they feel a sudden burst of indignation to express themselves on the typewriter to their fullest and best, put in all the tobacco they have in their soul but do not mail the letter. And so yesterday, being still hungry, we wrote out a real heart to heart talk about the fare and service at Olimpia, but being a weakly instead of a daily, we have had time to reflect and get a square meal. We take it all back, everything was just lovely and we had a grand time. We believe it was Dean Swift who said he never cared for the bill of fare when he was invited out, but he did care about the bill of company.

Well, the bill of company was A no. 1 and the program was "par excellence" from start to finish, what more could one ask for.

HON. EMMET PURYEAR.

Editors Herald:

Since our county man, Hon. R. W. Keenon, has withdrawn from the race for Commonwealth's Attorney, and new alignments must be formed in this race, we think it fair and right to make some suggestions. Mr. Puryear was elected to fill an unexpired term. He seems to have been faithful and efficient. He is a young man of unblemished character, well equipped to discharge the duties of the office, and his past service has shown him to be diligent and energetic. During the days of the campaign just past no whisper has been breathed affecting his democracy, his competency, or the efficiency of his work. The voters of Mercer county, without reflecting in the slightest degree upon Mr. Puryear's opponent, are able to give consideration to the old-time Democratic principle that a public servant who has been true and faithful is entitled to an endorsement at the hands of those whom he has served well. Personal affection and county pride may have stood in your way before, but that is removed and every Democrat in the county now has an opportunity to say whether he believes in, and desires to see, a time-honored principle of his party upheld. Those who do can exemplify their faith in a very practical way. We are not endeavoring to dictate to any one, but offer these suggestions to those who believe in reason and try to apply its conclusions to all their affairs. We hope the voters of Mercer county will give Mr. Puryear a large majority in compliment of his past faithfulness, and in doing this they will make no mistake and have nothing to regret.—Harrdsburg Herald. (Adv.)

Art Unadorned.
I like my art unadorned; thought and skill and the other strange quality that is added thereto to make things beautiful—and nothing more. A farthing's worth of paint and paper, and behold! a thing of beauty!—as they do in Japan. And if it should fall into the fire—well, it has gone like yesterday's sunset, and tomorrow there will be another.—H. G. Wells.

The Spur of Necessity.
Freedom to do exactly as one chooses, if long continued, usually brings one to a point where nothing seems worth choosing. We fret at the constraint of duty and the spur of necessity, but there is nothing in life that supplies such zest as the fact that things must be done and are given into our hands to be accomplished.

Cultivate Art of Listening.
Listening always implies understanding, for neither the babe nor the sage will come and talk to us if our understanding has not first awakened them and called them forth. "Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water," says the ancient, "but a man of understanding will draw it out."

Caesar and Napoleon.
"Caesar ran great risks in the enterprises into which his bold spirit impelled him," Napoleon said at St. Helena. "He came out of them successfully through his genius. His battles in the Civil war were real battles. Up to my time France still felt his influence."

Foreign Doctors.
One does not need to be a citizen of the United States in order to be permitted to practice medicine in this country. The foreign-born person, if able to pass the required examination, can practice as well as the native born.

Individual Gifts.
Degrees infinite of luster there must always be, but the weakest among us has a gift, however seemingly trivial, which is peculiar to him, and which, worthily used, will be a gift also to his race forever.—Ruskin.

Man With Glasses.
It is a greater crime in the eye of the law to strike a man who wears glasses than it is to assault one who does not wear glasses. In most of the states this law obtains, if not in all of them.

In New York Savings Banks.
Two million persons in New York have money in the savings banks; were they to share their savings with the rest of the population of the city, each of the 6,000,000 would have $225.

Uncle Eben.
"A man allus gits caught at it," said Uncle Eben, "when he tries to say sumpin' spiteful disguised as a joke, but a lot o' folks keep on tryin' it jes' de same."

Unusual.
Speaking of long memories, a writer in the Boston Globe says: "I can remember my grandmother when 'nineten months of age."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Better to Spend Wisely.
If a man hoards money and enjoys it not, he is a fit companion for the donkey that dines on thistles when grass is plentiful.

Very Similar.
Life is a good deal like baseball. It is one thing to get to the top of the league and another to stay there.—Detroit Free Press.

Or His Own Thumb.
Let us live in hopes. Even the knocker may finally land his hammer on a nail.—Alexandria Times-Tribune.

Larger Than United States.

Why Hand Shaking is Dangerous.
Bacteriologists recently found under the fingernails of men, women and children no less than thirteen different kinds of disease germs, including those of tuberculosis, diphtheria and influenza.

Plants Can Feel.
We now know that plants are able to feel objects at a distance. Certain ferns, for example, will begin to send down a root on the outside of the pot the instant water is placed in the saucer; and, when a fly is placed before a sundew plant the leaf reaches for the insect with its tentacles.

Answer to a Correspondent.
No, Mr. Boshysell, you must not confound bologna with bologna. The one belongs to the age of myths and the other to the sausage. The bologna is made chiefly of hot dogs of war, whereas the bologna—well, never mind what the bologna is made of. Shut your eyes and eat it, and be content with the thought that, whatever their origin, it is constructed of little pieces of something, while the other is not.

English Table Delicacy.
The Englishman's weakness for pudding and pie is attested by the fact that the great London fire began at Pudding lane and ended at Pie corner. Wine Office court derived its name from the wine traffic formerly carried on there. Lambert Sinner, the pretender in Henry VIII's time, originated the Sinner or mid-Lent cake, now a celebrated specialty of Hereford. The cake is made of flour filled with plums and candied peel. It is tied in a cloth and boiled for hours, after which it is brushed over with egg and baked hard.

Guessed What Donation Was.
A certain usher in a village church had a way of his own of dealing with cases of doubtful charity. One Sunday he came around with the bag to a gentleman of doubtful open-handedness. This worthy, remembering, no doubt, that one should not publish one's good deeds too widely, concealed his donation in his close-shut fist and reached for the bag, whereupon the collector, deftly withdrawing it before he could reach it, said in a stern whisper: "Give it to me, sir. One has just come off my waistcoat."

An editorial in the Kenton, Ohio, News-Republican regarding the Hardin County Chautauqua, among many other good points, has the following to say:

"You owe it to your mind and body to take the Chautauqua treatment."

"People who miss the Chautauqua miss one of the greatest influences for inspiration, culture, and enlightenment that exists in this or any other country."

"Remember when you spend money for a Chautauqua ticket you are investing in something that brings dividends. Education is the best purchase that money can buy."

"Yes, we know what so many say about needing the time for business and all that, but remember that all business and no relaxation makes real estate valuable in the graveyard, too, because people, who never relax, collapse before their time."

"The average man spends more for cigars within two weeks than it costs to purchase a Chautauqua ticket which would enable him to see and hear some of the most noted men and women in America, men and women who are shaping the public opinion of our nation, and who are making history."

How much would most of us gladly give if we could hear Beethoven, or Gough, or Wendell Phillips, or the great Father Vaughan, who died a little while ago at Dubuque? When you spend your money for a circus you spend it for something which gives you a few thrills maybe, but that is about all. When you spend the little money asked for a Chautauqua ticket you have something left in your brain and heart that will glow and make of you a nobler and more enlightened, more efficient citizen."

Former Secretary Bryan's campaign to put before the American people his position growing out of the situation between the United States and Germany, was expected to have come to an end for the present with the publication of his appeal to German-Americans. In his third statement since his resignation Mr. Bryan urges German-Americans to aid in maintaining peace between the United States and Germany. He appeals to them to endeavor to influence the German government to take no steps that would lead in the direction of war.

Mr. Bryan also tells the German-Americans first not to suspect President Wilson of not being neutral and friendly toward Germany, because he is both; second, that the President is desirous of peace, and that it is their duty to aid him in maintaining it; and third, not to attempt to connect the negotiations now in progress with Germany with those in progress with Great Britain, because the cases are different. Unqualified admiration for the firm, dignified and courteous tone of President Wilson's note to Germany is expressed by the newspapers all over the world. While it is considered in no sense an ultimatum, the press contends the language is so clear it leaves no room for dilatory tactics or a complex controversy.

President Wilson, it is held, goes straight to the point by inviting Germany to state plainly whether she will respect in future, the rights of non-combatants and the laws of humanity.

The words "solemn representations," which occur in the note, says the Petit Parisien, sum up its spirit. Notwithstanding the perfect politeness of its tone, the paper asserts such words are not used in diplomatic documents except in periods of real tension. They are held to show that President Wilson has decided upon his policy, and nothing will induce him to alter it.

Hon. William Jennings Bryan is still getting his share of criticism for resigning from the President's cabinet at so critical a time. Members of his party have forgotten the great service rendered in the past years by this distinguished democrat. We have been his consistent friend since he was nominated for President in 1896 and for the first time we feel justified in parting company with him and emphatically taking our stand with President Wilson. Like most democrats and in fact with most of the nation we view the action of Mr. Bryan, as almost unpardonable in leaving the cabinet, deserting his party and his post of duty at a time so critical, when the President and the whole nation were working and praying to avoid a breach with Germany, his words and actions being more calculated to precipitate the war than any other conceivable thing.

However, we believe that the motives of Mr. Bryan were patriotic and he sincerely desired to do the best thing for his country, as great as his mistake may be. It is being charged and is believed by many that he has ambition for another nomination at the hands of his party for the Presidency and that this was the motive that induced him to leave the cabinet.

Should this prove to be true it will cost the distinguished Nebraskan the confidence of thousands of friends who disagree with him in this recent step but are willing to deal charitably with him in recognition of his past work for his party and country. The nation will no longer consider him as a suitable man for executive duty. He has proved conclusively that he is a theorist and a dreamer and a failure as an official. He has his sphere in which he can still be of great service and we hope that his future conduct will prove that his recent mistake was not induced by selfish or ulterior motives.

Mr. Bryan is not the only ethical and political leader of the people who long since discovered the strategy of getting in touch with thousands of citizens and citizens-to-be who annually attend Chautauques. Both he and Senator La Follette have used their appearing before these masses of average Americans as fulcrums for the levers which they have used in political overturnings; and much of the bitterness of the attack on Mr. Bryan is due, no doubt, to recognition of this fact by journals controlled by "interests" that he has overturned. Such a feeling may explain the misrepresentation of organizations that foster free speech, that open the eyes of voters and that insist upon light being shed on all civic problems.

STATE WIDE PROHIBITION REJECTED BY OVER-WHELMING VOTE.

Republican Convention Declares For County Unit: Morrow Republican Choice For Governor.

The Republican Platform Convention held at Lexington on Tuesday was a very harmonious meeting. The delegates seemed to be well united, both upon party leaders and upon the platform. So universal was the enthusiasm for Hon. Edward P. Morrow as the Republican nominee for Governor that his only opponent, Dr. Ben Bruner, observed that his opponent was the choice of his party and he arose in the convention before the delegates and withdrew in favor of his opponent, leaving Morrow the only candidate now for the gubernatorial nomination. Judge Ed C. O'Rear of Frankfort, Ky., was the champion of the State-wide sentiment in the convention, but the convention declared in favor of the County Unit Law and rejected the resolution committing the party State-wide Prohibition by the surprising vote of 2104 1-6 to 162 4-5. The Republicans who attended the convention were elated over the harmony that prevailed among the delegates and are enthusiastic over the prospects of a reunited party.

STANLEY STILL DEMOCRATIC FAVORITE

By Thos. B. Cromwell in the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Col. Ike Dunn, of Danville, has a self-sustaining farm on the banks of the river, in Garrard county, where about June 1 each year he calls a large company of his friends together to enjoy a fish fry. Last Tuesday he has his guests some 350 representative men, principally Democrats, from Garrard, Boyle, Mercer, Lincoln, Anderson and Jessamine counties, and there were a few from other counties, including Jefferson, Fayette, Henry and Pulaski.

The writer, before and after the feast of fried fish, corn bread and buttermilk, talked with many men from Anderson, Boyle, Lincoln and Mercer counties, and the gist of the statement they made was that a majority of the voters in those counties are opposed to the open saloon, and likewise opposed to state-wide prohibition. They are for the county unit law, but further than that they will not go on the liquor question.

Several men said that last fall they had noted for Senator J. C. W. Heckham, but that in the race for the gubernatorial nomination they are for former Congressman A. O. Stanley. The sentiment of the gathering outspokenly was for Stanley, who was present and who spoke in Danville that night. A. R. Brown, who resembles very much the pictures of Abraham Lincoln, and who is one of the strong Democrats in Garrard county, said: "Our country will give Stanley more votes than all of the other candidates combined will get." Last fall Brown was one of the heavy men in behalf of Senator Heckham.

Capt. W. Vernon Richardson, of Danville, who is Senator Ollie James' private secretary, expressed the opinion that Stanley will get more votes in Boyle county than all of his opponents. J. B. Morris, of Lawrenceburg, an uncle of Assistant Attorney General Charles Morris, of Frankfort, said there is no doubt about Anderson county's going for Stanley by "a big majority over all."

Lowen Givens, of Stanford, said he believes Stanley will carry Lincoln county in spite of the fact that Editor Shelton Sauley, earlier in the week, told the writer that McChesney will carry Lincoln county, and that State Auditor Henry M. Hosworth will get a good vote.

After leaving the fish fry a trip was made to Danville, and there a number of prominent Democrats confirmed the opinion that Capt. Richardson had expressed.

CARD OF THANKS.

For the kind words of sympathy, for the many beautiful floral designs, for the help and assistance of our neighbors and friends shown during the illness and after the death of our dear mother we wish to express our sincerest gratitude and thanks.
Miss Fannie West, sisters and brothers.

ENJOYABLE DANCE.

One of the most enjoyable dances ever given in Lancaster was the one given at the Rex Auditorium Wednesday night. Splendid music, delightful weather and fair visitors added to the enjoyment of all.

Mr. John McRoberts to whom is due the credit of getting up this dance is being congratulated by all who had the pleasure of being present.

A delightful lunch was served during intermission by the Hop Club at the Hotel. Quite a number of pleasant out of town visitors were here for the dance, among them were Miss Dorothy Perry and Messrs Charles Vaughn and John Winte of Richmond who were with Mr. John McRoberts. Hon. and Mrs. Robert Harding and Miss Margaret Harding who were with Mrs. J. E. Robinson.

Those who acted as chaperones for this dance were Mr. and Mrs. Robert McRoberts, Mr. and Mrs. John Stormes and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elkin.

PLEA FOR PURYEAR.

The withdrawal of Hon. Rodman W. Keenon from the race for Commonwealth's Attorney makes Mercer county the battle ground as between Hon. Emmett Puryear, of Danville, and Hon. J. Sam Owsley, of Stanford. The one that carries Mercer will doubtless be the nominee. Both men are fine fellows, but it appears to us that there is no question what the Democrats of Mercer will do. Mr. Puryear has made one of the most painstaking, kindly and able attorneys the district ever had. His conduct of the commonwealth's business has been above criticism. Probably he made a mistake occasionally, but who does not. He has watched his course carefully and gladly testified to the fact of his worth, usefulness and devotion to duty. Such a man deserves endorsement for these qualities alone, but there are other reasons, too—he is a neighbor and a good one. His cheerful face and kindly greeting is seen and heard so often on our streets that it is hard to tell whether he lives most at Danville or Harrodsburg. He is a fine fellow, is Emmett Puryear, and an able, conscientious public official, and we believe that he will get the support in Mercer that he so justly deserves.—Harrodsburg Leader.

"I HAVE EARNED MORE" HE SAYS

Tanlac Increases Weight and Working Capacity of Efficient Molder.

W. G. Points, the efficient molder of the Vulcan Flow Company, living at 121 Chestnut Street, Evansville, Ind., said recently:

"I have been an awful sufferer from stomach and kidney troubles. My condition had actually grown so bad that I had almost become disgusted with my trade. I told several friends that I was tempted to give up my work entirely."

"Before I used Tanlac I had no desire to go out in the evenings. In fact, I had no ambition to do anything other than remain around home and take no interest in anything. I now want to get out of doors in the evening and walk around and enjoy everything I eat. I told one of the boys at the shop today at noon that I would rather take a dose of Tanlac than do anything else, and I took the medicine, too, as I am keeping it close by me. I now feel like working and have earned fifty cents more each day this week."

"I have gained in weight and am now as spry as a cat. I am only too glad to recommend this remarkable medicine Tanlac."

Tanlac, the celebrated new preparation that is accomplishing such astounding results throughout this state, is now sold in Lancaster exclusively by R. E. McRoberts and in Bryansville by Becker, Ballard & Scott where the medicine can be had.

LOVING CUP

PRESENTED TO ELDER F. M. TINDER
By Officers of Christian Church.

In recognition of his faithful services, the love and respect with which he is held by the officers of his church and the rounding out of his twelfth year as its faithful pastor, the officers of the Christian church presented Rev. F. M. Tindler with a handsome loving cup immediately after the morning services last Sunday morning. In beautiful and well chosen words, Prof. M. L. Caneer told of the high esteem Bro. Tindler was held by both the officers as well as the members of the church and the work that has been accomplished under his leadership, since he and his estimable family came into our midst twelve years ago. Naturally and very appropriately, surprised was Bro. Tindler at the presentation of this beautiful and appropriate token, and with words choked with emotion, he very touchingly thanked the members and said if his efforts with this church had accomplished anything good, it was through the loyalty and support he had received from the entire membership. The loving cup is of sterling silver, a beautiful design and upon which was engraved the following:

"F. M. Tindler

Jaroslav Cimera and His Great Band

BAND DAY is always a big feature of every Redpath Chautauqua, and from present indications it long will be. The fourth day of the Redpath Chautauqua this year is to be Band Day. Jaroslav Cimera and his great concert band will render two programs—one in the afternoon and one in the evening. The programs will include some of the well known heavy overtures, and the encores will comprise some of the popular pieces of the day. Jaroslav Cimera was born in Pilsen, Bohemia, the land from which many of our greatest musicians have come. He has, however, spent the greater part of his life in America, and the majority of the musicians who comprise his band are American born. Nine years ago Mr. Cimera was playing trombone solos with Innes' Band in concerts in Orchestra Hall, Chicago. He has also appeared as soloist with Sousa and later with Bohumir Kry's Band. For several years he acted as assistant director of Kry's Band, and for three winter seasons he was trombonist in the Kry Concert Company. During his forthcoming Chautauqua season Mr. Cimera will not only direct his band, but will appear in trombone solos. Mr. Cimera is not new to the Chautauques. In fact, he has played for three seasons past in Chautauqua engagements.

SOME VACATION DON'TS.

And now summer approaches and beckoning to woods and stream and sea.
The vacationist is looking toward the "two weeks off." It should be carefully considered, so as to make a joyous period.

What are you going to do? How many of you plod along from day to day enduring little sacrifices to "save up" for the one big playtime of the year? How often the vacation is marred by doing the wrong thing, and instead of being beneficial it is baneful!

It is the wise vacationist who has his vacation every day. The recreation habit must be cultivated. There is no better time than the present. But for him who doesn't know how to combine work and play here are a few timely vacation "don'ts":

Don't spend all your money on flimsy summer clothes that you can use only at the summer resort for two weeks.

Don't fear being thought unfashionable in order to be comfortable.

Don't spend your hard-earned money for a high-priced hotel in order to say that you have been there.

Don't take the children where you will be forever dressing them.

Don't reprimand your husband before strangers, when he has come to enjoy himself.

Don't object to your husband enjoying games that you cannot play.

Don't count every penny that he spends while he is on his one holiday.

Don't fear roughing it a little in the country, if necessary. It may be just the thing you need.

Don't spend all your time looking for souvenirs; rather look at the sky and birds and the trees.

Don't make your wife's vacation miserable by telling her how beautifully Mrs. Jones dresses.

Don't discourage her learning games that seem frivolous to you.

Don't allow your wife to do the same endless stitching at fancy work as she has done at home.

Don't go on a vacation where your wife will be forever doing housework.

Don't refuse to take your wife fishing for fear she can't keep still. A little tolerance might give you both great pleasure.

Don't be a hermit when you go to enjoy the open.

Don't object to dancing on the ground that it is "silly." It may be the very exercise for you.

Don't tell your fellow vacationists your family troubles. Remember, they have some of their own.

Don't tell what a great man you are in the city.

Don't expect your summer acquaintances to become your bosom friends.

Don't let others always pay for your "treats."

Don't gossip about the other boarders. The moon may shine on you some night.

Don't forget the three sunbeams of vacation are to sing, smile, slumber.

And, above all, whatever you do,
don't be a "kill-joy."

FOOT-AND-MOUTH
DISEASE ELIMINATED.

Eradication of the foot-and-mouth disease from Kentucky to the last trace brought about the release of Dr. O. S.
Crisler and Dr. W. H. Simmons, Federal experts attached to the Kentucky Experiment Station, and they will resume the work of hog-cholera warfare which was interrupted by the outbreak of the other plague. Farm sanitation is to be the chief agent in banishing cholera, and the precautions which will make its appearance rare and its control speedy will keep down various other stock diseases which take a toll of millions from the farmers of this State every year.

wealth, and it is believed that in a few years this disease will be removed from the list of active menaces.

KENTUCKY TAXPAYERS, WHICH DO YOU WANT?

WEST VIRGINIA

State Wide Prohibition Paralyzes the State.

Higher Taxes—Worse Conditions.

The West Virginia Legislature convened in May, the second time this year, to consider tax questions made necessary by a shortage of revenue to pay the current expenses of the State.

The inauguration of State-wide prohibition, last July, cut off $250,000.00 of revenue heretofore available.

At the close of the fiscal year, September 30, 1912, the State had a surplus in the treasury of $292,173.39.

The Governor estimated that on July 1, 1915, there would be a deficit of $621,000.00, not counting $850,000.00 of oil appropriations not expended.

The Legislature, at the May special session, increased the tax rate in the State 40 per cent to make up the deficit in revenues caused by the State-wide prohibition system.

For lack of funds, Governor Hatfield vetoed appropriation bills amounting to $583,608.09. Among the vetoed appropriations are the following:

Transportation of prisoners and extradition of criminals, $5,000.00 a year.

Girls' dormitories and agricultural buildings, State University, $100,000.00.

State Industrial Home for Girls (buildings and land), $10,000.00 for next year.

Normal School (buildings and land), $80,000.00 a year.

State Tuberculosis Sanatorium (buildings and land), $15,000.00 a year.

State hospitals (buildings and land), $35,000.00 a year.

Public Service Commission, $60,000.00 a year.

Mining extension work, State University, $10,000.00 a year.

Civil contingent fund, $20,000.00 for current year.

Re-writing and re-binding Auditor's records, $5,000.00 a year.

Protection of forests and propagation of fish and game, $10,000.00 a year.

Prevention foot and mouth diseases, $5,000.00.

State militia fund, $65,000.00 a year.

Repairs and improvements, State institutions, $5,000.00.

Hotel Inspector, $1,562.50.

State colored Orphan Home (buildings and land), $2,000.00 a year.

State Librarian, $500.00 a year.

Point Pleasant monument, $2,500.00 a year.

King's Daughters and city hospitals, $10,000.00 a year.

Factory Inspectors, $4,000.00 a year.

Since the adoption of prohibition, violations of the liquor laws have increased enormously. Bootleggers are busy all over the State. On the first day of May, 1914, before prohibition went into effect, there were 25 prisoners in the county jail at Charleston, the capital of the State. On the first day of May, 1915, there were 92 prisoners in the same jail.

WHO PAYS THE TAXES?

All live stock of all kinds in Kentucky—horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep, etc., are assessed at..... $52,148,637.00
All mines and mineral products are assessed at..... 1,473,653.00
All stocks, merchandise, etc., are assessed at..... 31,148,282.00
All manufactured articles are assessed at..... 3,364,419.00
All agricultural products and farming implements (tools) are assessed at..... 2,514,349.00
All diamonds, watches, clocks, jewelry, gold and silverware, paintings, musical instruments, and libraries are assessed at..... 2,102,135.00

$31,387,000.00 is the capitalization of Kentucky distilleries and breweries, according to the last Federal Census. $12,493,560.00 is the assessed value of Whisky in U. S. Bonded Warehouses, in Kentucky, on which State and county taxes are paid.

$19,250,000.00 is the assessed value (approximately) of properties used in the distilling and brewing industries and liquor trade in Kentucky, not including any part of items given above.

$6,500,000.00 is the amount paid out annually in Kentucky by distilleries for grain.

$2,290,000.00 is paid annually for wages and salaries by Kentucky distilleries and breweries.

$2,405,000.00 is paid annually for coal and barrels by Kentucky distilleries and breweries.

$600,000.00 annually is paid to Kentucky Banks in interest to $100,000.00 by Kentucky distilleries and breweries.

$60,000,000.00 annually is brought into Kentucky in bank clearances by the distilling and brewing industries.

$921,254.15 is the amount paid in taxes in Kentucky by the distilling and brewing industries in 1913, as given by statements from the State Auditor's office.

This sum is more than the combined taxes paid on all the merchandise, coal mines, oil wells, live stock, agricultural products, and manufactured products in the State.

State-wide prohibition will destroy entirely, for taxation purposes, these sources of revenue. Other property must then be taxed heavier to make up that loss.

If Farm Lands are compelled to pay it, the tax on farms must be 50 per cent more than at present.

If Live Stock is made to pay it, that class of property must be taxed three times what it is at present.

If Railroads are to pay it, their assessment must be doubled.

If Mining Property is required to pay it, their assessment must be increased to more than 100 times what it is now.

WHO IS WILLING TO PAY THESE EXTRA TAXES?

And what will we get? Conditions similar to those in Tennessee and West Virginia, and we will drive out of the State our largest taxpaying industries.

Nothing will be gained for temperance. Counties can vote themselves as "dry" under the present law as State-wide prohibition could make them.

TENNESSEE

Six Years of State Wide Prohibition Bankrupts State.

More Crime Than Ever Before.

Tennessee has had State-wide prohibition for six years.

Before the prohibition law went into effect, 10 per cent of the revenues of the State were applied to paying off the State debt, as provided by law, thereby rapidly discharging it. Since prohibition deprived the State of large revenues from taxes on the manufacture of liquors and beer, the sinking fund law was suspended, and payments on the State debts stopped.

The present Legislature found that there was a deficit in State revenues of $1,022,000.00. Short-time notes have been given to cover that deficit, the same to be converted into 30-year bonds next July. This will increase the bonded indebtedness of the State to a total of $12,500,000.00.

Taxes have been largely increased. The State Manufacturers' Association, in 1914, stated in its report on Taxation:

"There is a tendency throughout the State to increase taxes on an already overburdened people, both by constant increase of the assessment as well as the rate."

Since that report was made, the Legislature has passed a new Revenue and Assessment Act, increasing many kinds of taxes from 40 to 100 per cent, the entire tax burden being nearly twice what it was before prohibition went into effect.

In 1908, the year before State-wide prohibition was adopted, the cost of criminal prosecutions in Tennessee was $158,000.00. According to official figures submitted to the Legislature that has just adjourned, $342,000.00 was expended for criminal prosecutions last year. This shows an increase of nearly 100 per cent in crime in six years under prohibition.

The city of Nashville recently issued bonds for $987,000.00 to cover a deficit caused largely by the operation of the prohibition law. The other large cities of the State are in a similar financial condition, due to the same cause.

In Tennessee, prohibition has not helped the taxpayer, nor has it improved moral conditions. Exactly the reverse has been the result. Large numbers of extra officeholders, and greatly increased expenses for their support and for prosecuting violations of the law, are the main features of present conditions.

Blind Opera, bootleggers and moonshiners have taken the place of law, regulated liquor traffic; there has been a steady increase in all crimes; moral standards have been lowered; and TAXES HAVE DOUBLED.

Rev. Joseph K. Griffis (Tahan), Captured by Indians When a Babe, to Lecture at Coming Redpath Chautauqua

TAHAN AS HE IS TODAY.

A MOST interesting feature of our coming Redpath Chautauqua program will be the appearance on one evening of Tahan (Rev. Joseph K. Griffis) in his great lecture, "Up From Savagery." Attired in full Indian dress, he relates as thrilling a life story as ever fell to the lot of any man in America.

Mr. Griffis' mother was a quarter breed Osage woman. His father was a white man, a scout known all over the frontier by the name of California Joe. Their home was near the present site of the city of Gainesville, in Texas.

A band of Kiowa Indians raided that section when Mr. Griffis was but a babe and carried into captivity large numbers of the inhabitants. They killed his mother, and Chief Zepkote of the Kiowas took the baby with him, back to the country of the Kiowas, and presented him to his wife, who decided that his name should be Tahan, which means "Texas man."

The story of his capture was told the boy long years afterward by an Indian of the tribe who participated in the raid.

The boy loved his foster parents as though they had been his own, and they took the same care of him that they did of their own children. He tells many interesting stories of how they taught him obedience to his parents, respect for the only gods they knew anything about and of his father's instruction in hunting buffalo and other game and in horseback riding and long distance listening. He also tells many stories of privation on the southwestern plains and how they drank water from buffalo tracks and ate their meat raw. He learned how to kindle fires in a pouring rain without matches and to tie a horse to a hole in the ground; also how to tell the tribe to which an Indian belongs by the shape of his moccasins as left in the dust tracks.

Tahan witnessed the so called battle between the Indians and Custer's Seventh Cavalry along the Washita river. In what is now known as the state of Oklahoma. The captives, of whom Tahan was one, were driven out to the settlers' camp, and it was just following this that Tahan learned he was not a Kiowa Indian and that the chief and his wife were not his real parents. The white men contended that he was not an Indian and that he was a captive among them, and the story of the raid told Texas then came out. The Indians were compelled to give him up, and one of the white men took him into Texas, where he slept in the quarters of the horses.

One night, however, he became so homesick and homesick that he took one of the horses and hit the trail toward the Kiowa country and eventually found a road which led him to the camp and to his old Indian companions, where he remained until he was sixteen.

As time went on the Indians began to mingle quite freely with the whites, who were constantly becoming more numerous on the frontier, and the Kiowas were invited to attend an agricultural fair and horse race at Muskogee, in one of the Kiowa towns, riding his pony, Buckskin, won, and a government officer who witnessed the race immediately sent for Tahan and arranged with him to enlist for special duty as a scout. For two and a half years he served in this capacity, when one day he was insulted by a young lieutenant. Then he and another soldier, known as "Red Whisk," deserted and fled to the Cheyennes.

They were captured, court-martialed and sentenced to death. Imprisoned at Fort Reno, awaiting the day of execution, they cut a hole through the prison roof and escaped in the darkness of the night.

For three years Tahan was a wanderer, suspicious and afraid of everybody. Toward the latter part of his wanderings he crossed the border into Canada and one night in London, Ont., stopped to listen to the Salvation Army on the street. He went to the meeting in the Salvation Army hall, became a member of the Salvation Army and was later promoted to be a captain.

After some four years' work with the Salvation Army he took up work as an evangelist independently. About the year 1887 he went to Cleveland and held revival meetings in the Scranton Avenue Free Baptist Church. Out of this revival came the Philadelpy Free Baptist Church of that city, with a good membership.

Next he went to Buffalo, where he held meetings in the Free Baptist Church, out of which grew the Second Free Baptist Church, at the corner of Grant and Ferry streets, and later he served this church as pastor.

He had a strong leaning, however, toward the Presbyterian Church and finally decided to change to that denomination. He was subsequently ordained into the Presbyterian Church and became pastor of the South Presbyterian Church of Buffalo, a church of some 300 members. While pastor of that church he started other missions in that city, which have since grown into churches.

He was attending a missionary meeting in Buffalo one day when the parson for the technical offense he had committed while a savage was brought to him by Rev. Ward, pastor of another Presbyterian Church in that city. Rev. Griffis had told a few of his friends of the technical charge which was hanging over him, and they took it up with President Cleveland, who when he heard all the circumstances quickly granted the pardon.

Following his conversion Rev. Griffis was for a time also a missionary among the Indians. He spent a year and a half among the Senecas in New York state. He has visited the Chipewas in Minnesota, the Sioux in Dakota, the Utes in southern Colorado, the different tribes in Indian Territory and the Ojibways in Canada.
